PLUM FORWEB GREENE GEORGE Q, CANNON HONORED

Sanpete Man Appointed Utah Supervisor of Census.

WAS ENDORSED BY BROWN

COLONEL LANNAN'S CANDIDATE WAS TURNED DOWN.

Wesley K. Walton Again Experiences the Bitterness of Defeat-Supervisor Will Dispense Much Patronage-Local Political Gossip - Mr. Dale Not a Candidate.

(Special to The Herald.) Washington, July 24.-Director of the Census Merriam will take his list of supervisors of census as decided upon to date to the president and they will be given recess appointments. Fol-lowing are the names of the supervis-rs for Utah and neighboring states: Utah-Webster Greene, Mt. Pleasant, Wyoming-Charles W. Biner, Chey-Idaho-William H. Savidge, Boise.

The appointment of Web Greene to this position may be set down as a victory for the Arthur Brown wing of the Mark Hanna aggregation of Utah. The appointee was a delegates to the St. Louis convention, one who did not bolt, so that he does not now have to get into the circus by cruwling under the tent. It is understood that when the fight reached the last stage ex-Sentor for Greene, while Wesley K. Walton, the regular Lannan candidate, was left to realize how it feels to place all your counters on the wrong color.

Supervisor Greene will have the naming of a large number of subordinates for this census work in Utah, and as a consequence will be much sought after by the faithful in the next few months. He has for years cut a considerable figure in Republican politics in Sanpete county; he will be more of a factor than ever now. e appointment of Web Greene to

TOO MUCH FOR THE COLONEL. Exciting Tale of a Song and Its Interpretation.

The sound of revelry had died away, and but two of the gang were left to tell the story. "Arthur!" 'Twas the colonel who spoke. "Yes, sire." "Sing me a song, a good old song, that will blot out the wretched present."

Then a voice arose, a voice that had once been silvery—

"Let Erin remember the days of old, Ere her faithless sons betray her: When Malachi wore the collar of gold That he won from the great invader."

That he won from the great invager.

"It's a dirty Democratic lie!" yelled the colonel, and he upset the table in springing to his feet.

"Why, what do you mean, sire?"

"That about the collar of gold! I wear no collar of gold," and the doughty colonel clutched at his throat as though choking. "It's a dirty, low-down, contemptible, Democratic lie!" he cried again.

Arthur threw his arms about the excited man and pushed him into a chair,

Arthur threw his arms about the ex-cited man and pushed him mto a chair, "Sire, be calm," he cooled, "That old song was composed by Tom Moore be-fore the Democratic party was born," "Oh!" sighed the colonel, "I thought it referred to that deal with Mark Law."

"Hush-h-h"—
A shrewd observer of municipal matters in general gives it as his opinion that the greatest need of Sait Lake City at the present time, and will be for the next few years, is a level-headed financier at the head of the city government. The city, he says, is in debt, and getting deeper in debt cach day. The most serious problems of the immediate future are financial ones, and that party which in the make-up of its ticket this fail makes the best appeal to the business sense of the community, will have by far the best chance for victory.

MR. DALE DECLINES.

Will Not Be a Candidate For Mayor

of This City.
William H. Dale, who is being urged by many friends to accept the Demoby many friends to accept the Democratic nomination for mayor again, asserts in the most positive terms that under no conditions whatever will be consider the matter. There are many who will not accept this as final, and in apilte of Mr. Dule's wishes, he will continue to be a factor in the problem. He is confident that with any good business man at the head of a well-balanced ticket, the Democrats will win a complete victory.

Chautauqua to deliver an address before that association at Boulder, Colo., on Aug. 4.

This Chautauqua meeting has grown to be an important event during the short time it has been in session, and is numerously attended by residents of Colorado. Texas and other states—the representatives of the southern states being especially numerous. A great many prominent eastern educators and divines are in attendance, having grasped the opportunity of spending a summer in thes hady recesses of the Rockies, and at the same time enjoying an intellectual treat. Addresses have been and will be made by a great many of the leading men of the United States. William J Bryan made the opening address early in July, and other eminent men have followed him.

President Cannon stated yesterday that he would take for his subject "Pioneer Life."

It is understood that a party of Mr.
Cannon's acquaintances will accompany him on the trip. Just who will be in the party is not known, but Hoyt Sherman, commercial agent of the Colorado Roud at this city, will likely have charge of the arrangements.

HOTEL GOSSIP.

"Educational facilities have been vastly improved in the south," said President James K. Powers of the University of Alahama at the Knutsford hast night. The last legislature of our state increase of the appropriation for the public scale in the appropriation and the appropriation of the National Educational association, and am just returning home. The University of Alabama how has an enrollment of over 400 students, and has madegreat progress in the past few years. One very prominent educator, well posted on institutions throughout the country, declared that we have made more progress in the past two years than any similar institution in the United States.

"Alabama is a great from producing state, and manufactures more pig from than any state in the country. Our iron plants are taxed to their urmost, Furmaces that had not been in blast for years are running hight and day, and every furnace in the state is employed."

"Tintic is a rich district, and its development is going on all the time." said W. C. Moro of Eureka at the Walker yesterday. "There is a great deal of prospecting and development work being done and great results are sure to be obtained. I have been engaged in mining interests in the district for the past mine years, and never knew a senson when more work was being done than at present, and I am certain that several more big mines will soon be opened up."

win soon be opened up."

"I see by the papers that Detroit is going to give ex-Secretary Alger a big reception there on his arrival," said Hon. M. M. Bashford of Madison, Wis. at the Knutsford yesterday. "If would be better to let him drop in quietly without demonstration. Alger's administration of the war department was notoriously incompetent to say the least. His war record was a very poor one, and he should never have been selected for the war portfolio."

Mr. Rashford is a very prominent Demoorat of the Radger state, but boffed the Chicago convention nominees and voteg for McKinley.

Last evening a good looking but exceedingly nervous young man accommanded by a demure and well-contained oung woman alabeted from the west sound passenger train, and after leaving heir hand baggage in the hotel office intered the dining room. After dinner be young man nervously asked Chief lerk Jenkins if rooms could be obtained by himself and the lady, and being assured that they could be registered Miss 2. Perkins of Sait Lake on one line and 0. F. Harrison from Diamondville, Wyo., on the line below. He then ordered the coung lady's trank brought up, but hough room 19 had been assigned to dise Perkins be required that the trunk be placed in his own room No. 20. Later the pair wended their way to the office of Deputy Clerk Gallett where a license to well was procured. Then a visit was made to the home of Bishop Cannon, president of the Pocatello stake of Zion, and when the coung returned to the hotel office, Mr. Harrison again seized the pear and after his own name on the needs of the Pocatello stake of Zion, and when the coung returned to the food office, Mr. Harrison again seized the pear and after his own name on the register he wrote the words, "and wife." Then one room will be sufficient? Then one room will be sufficient? Queried the hotel clerk.

The repose was brief, for they took the 220 a. m. train to Sait Lake this marning, and Chief Clerk Jenkins is still scratching his head and exclaming, "I wonder what in thunder they wanted to won the room 19 for when room 19 to twen room 19 for when room 20 to the room 20 to t Portrait Grafter With a Large Utah Record.

DETAINED AT CHEYENNE

MAY BE BROUGHT BACK TO SALT LAKE.

Alleged That He Collected Money For a Salt Lake Portrait Firm Without Authority-Central Figure In Many Affairs of Different Kinds-Career at Spanish Fork.

The detention of J. J. Timms, a por-trait grafter, who made himself well known here in a few short weeks, has been ordered by Sheriff Howells, Timms being in the custody of the Cheyenne officials. He will probably be sent after today. Timms is wanted for embezzlement in Sait Lake of American Fork or both, and which is a point of interest not settled. While in the employ of Stawter & Walker, a West South Temple street portrait firm, Timms sold many pictures. But after quitting his job he went to American Fork and collected for them, which, they say, he had no right to do, and the question arcse with the county attorney whether or not action could be taken against him in this county, the offense having been committed in Utah county. The attorney decided he could do nothing and the sheriff maintained that he could. The interview ended in the attorney telling the sheriff he could bring him back, but it would be without his saaction. So the sheriff has had Timms held until today, when, it is understood, the matter will be submitted to the board of county commissioners.

Timms is a character. He knows the road well and the road knows him. Three months ago, when the portrait people discovered his hustling qualifications, they put him at once to work. But one day Cupid entered the agent's But one day Cupid entered the and arrangements were made to open up the Pleasant Grove. Leve waned, the cingagement was broken, and Timms settled down again to his daily avocation.

But love was yet to play a part and Timms looked sweet upon another lady of good circumstances, whose watch he borrowed. It is alleged that she afterward took it from a pawnshop and the love affair was called off. Timms later enlisted the attention of William Rockhill in a drug store scheme at Spanish Fork, and as an evidence of good fairh Rockhill gave him a retainer in the sum of $15. The drug store is still coming.

Among his later achievements is the appropriation of about $50 collected lilegitimately, as stated, and the establishment of a portrait firm in American Fork, whose debts, it is said, are swill being pald by a co-partner. His crowning act, if the allegation be true, is the abstraction of his sick sister's watch from a bureau drawer, which, it is said, also found a resting place with his friend, the broker.

Timms promised to pay all his debts and went to American Fork to live. How he got into Wyoming no one seems to know, but Sheriff Howells is intent upon bringing him back to face the music.

Timms, who has been in the employ of Slawter & Walker of that city, was arrested here tonight by the sheriff of this county on the charge of embezzlement. The charge was brought by Slawter & Walker and the arrest was made on instructions from the sheriff of Salt Lake county.

Timms came here hast Thursday and has been visiting relatives in this city. He was considerably surprised when arrested, claiming there was no cause for the arrest. He said that he would return to Salt Lake without requisition papers to face his accusers. An officer from Salt Lake will arrive next Wednesday for Timms.
